Corvallis, Ore. April 1.—With teams from over a dusce colleges and athletic clubs participating, the Amateur Athletic union held its first weaters indoor championship track meet here today. The events were run off in the authors of the Gregon Agricultural college.

sege. Special trains brought large delega-tions of our-of-town speciators, at-tracted by reports that several indoor records were sure to be equalled or broken. The mest brought together the most promising group of athletes since the contests last year at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Exposure.

The program of events in their or-for was as follows: Eighty-five yard lash, 210 pard dash, 640 yard run, 880 and run. Ninety yard hurdle race (eight nurdles, 2 feet 6 hunes high), 220 yard nurdles (ten hurdles 2 feet 6 inches hurdles (ten hurdles 2 feet 6 inches high).

One mile run, five mile run, pole vault, running high jump, running broad jump, 16 pound shot-put, discus linew, javelin throw.

One of the events that attracted great interest was the special five mile match race in which Smith of Washington State college and Millard of the Olympic club of San Francisco, competed. The Los Angeles Athletic club was represented by a star delegation that included Fred Kelly, hurdler, and Pete hagnard, weights Among other prominent entries were Chester Fee, University of Oregen invelle thrower. FULTON AND DILLON MAY BE MATCHED and dispose of another western giant—Freil Fulton of Rochester, Minn—before seeking a championship marich with Willard. There is no doubt that Fulton would give either one of them the hardest battle of any man in the country today. This may sound big, but from what I have seen of Fulton lately, I feel convinced that he has a citance with any of, them—Moran and Willard included. A battle at this time between Fulton and Moran would derais a tremendous amount of intercell, and then the winner would certainly have the best claim possible for a title match with Big Jess. Mike Celline, manager of Fulton, was at the cingside and issued a challenge to the winner. Collins made the statemens that he would match his man against Willard for any number of rounds and also a side bet, but that he was also willing to take on Moran or any other heavyweight in the country for a limited round contest or a marathon battle, and let the winner meet Willard in a world's title match.

the and let the winner meet Willard in a world's title match.

Billon Also There.

Jack Dillon, the Hoonier bear cat, was also at the ringside with his manuager. Sam Burbarger, to feste a challengs to the winner. Jack better known as the giant killor, was more anxious to make a match with Moranthan Willard. I think that Jack realizes that it would be a very tough marme to stack up against a man of Willard's physique, and it looks to me like a good bet that he will not be matched with the champion, although there may be talk of such a content.

Jun Flynn, the Pueble fireman, who was knocked out by Fulton in Milwaukee recently, was around the city after the flath and did not mince his words when he stated that he considered Fulton one of the hardent hittors in the business, and that if he ever met Moran or Willard he would like to bet a little money that the Minnesota man comes out winner. Of course Flynn is not over popular with Willard, and he may breach of thoor or outdoor would have let his feelings run away with himself in making the statement, but just the mane Flynn has a whole lat of respect for Fulton, as a heavy-weight.

NEW YORK. April L.—Ted-Kid, three) weeks, and despite the long layoff has added fittle weight. He is under the lot pound mark, and with a little training—we have his own word for it—could make 135 pounds for freature to the ring after a rather protracted layoff—for Lewis—of three weeks. When in trim Ted-Kid thinks nothing of battling four or five times during three weeks.

The Brilon, who has as strong a claim to the weiterweight championship as any man in the business, desires action; and his mentor, Jimmy Johnston, intends to give it to him in the form of numerous matches. It was at Johnston's instigation that Lewis took a vacation after battling his way to the apex of the welterweight division. But for Jimmy's restraining hand, Lewis would have gone along until he was stale. But Joimes put the check-rein on his ambitious battler just in time.

Lewis first match upon his recently into the game will be with—green world's championship to the one he now has suspense. Packery McFarland is the name. Yes, Packey is going to go through the motions of another "come back," and Ted-Kid Lewis has been seven to the proposition.

Fight at Catchweights.

Frank Multern, who is running a Milwaukee fight club, has burned into McFariand's car, and the proposition listens good to Packey. Of course, he will not make any weight for anyone, which means that he and Lewis will battle at catchweights. Packer, however wont outweigh Ted-Kid by more than ten rounds. Lewis can afford to give the westwhile wisard ten pounds, and he may beat him in the bargain.

Mulkern bolds out good inducements for Lewis to take a flyer at Mr. Mc-Farland, and it is unlikely that Johnston will turn down the chance for his man to tackie Packey. Mulkern has two open dates in May, the first und third weeks. Johnston is ready to accept a date during the first week of May, as he desires Lewis to go through with the two other matches before the latter part of May.
